

What is coaching?

A partnership with clients in a thought-provoking and creative process that inspires them to maximize their personal and professional potential.

Official definition by Coaching Federation